We currently have a vacancy for a motivated team player to join our company as Graduate Orthotists working within the beautiful county of Cornwall.

As an Orthotist, you will interact with patients, assessing their orthotic needs and using your clinical skills to meet the needs of the patient.

Duties/ Responsibilities:

In this role you will carry a full patient caseload covering all areas of orthotics, take accurate measures of any patient requiring an orthosis and align the orthosis to allow optimum effectiveness for the patient and deliver the orthosis within the agreed contract time at the orthotic service centre.

In addition, you will:

- Be aware of the Company's Quality system, and your responsibilities contained therein, and ensure that all paperwork and job sheets are filled out correctly legibly and promptly, including product specification and product codes.
- Ensure that all paperwork is up to date and facilitate in the resolution of any order queries in a timely manner.
- Help the technicians manufacture the orthosis by writing out clear and concise instructions and discussing any unusual requests directly with them. Any change from standard manufacturing techniques is subject to the risk assessment process.
- Ensure any stock removed from clinical stores is correctly booked out and replaced.
- Ensure that all clinical records are kept for every patient in the format recommended by the Profession and the orthotic service centre. To maintain patient confidentiality and adhere to the data protection act, ensuring that all patient records are kept secure at all times
- Work as part of the multidisciplinary team, respecting the role that each team member has to play and taking the lead role in orthotic prescribing.
- Be aware of the Contract style operated at each centre and ensure that your working practices conform to meet both the standards promoted by the Company and the requirements of the contract.

You will need excellent attention to detail, be able to work as an autonomous practitioner, have a positive approach and attitude, and demonstrate that you are undertaking continuing professional development and filling your working day in a productive manner.
